PROFILE

My Name is Derrick Grant, I specialize in Fine arts and graphic design. I create intense multimedia paintings with acrylics and oil on canvas. I have developed a method that has been referred to as the "Grantique" style. This style uses a combination of digital painting (using computer programs) followed by traditional acrylic paints on canvas. I have sold and donated many art pieces and in 2007 founded DKdesign Fine Art to distribute the resulting canvases. Additionally, it is a pleasure to also bring my creations to others in the form of wearable art in our new company Next Level World LLC. I am a co-founder of Next Level World and I specialize in creative fine art and clothing design.

Experience in Fashion and Designing

NLW LLC, Self Employed, Newtown PA, — 2012–Present

I have taken Fine-Art and designing courses at Mc Gill University. Later I designed theatrical costumes for Theater and Ballet Shows. I am currently the art and design director for Next Level World. I have created 3 NYC Fashion Week Runway Shows.
